

Swindon North End Bowls Club

Privacy policy and General Data Protection Regulations 2018

Swindon North End Bowls Club processes, stores and uses personal information which will only be used or disclosed for the primary purposes for which it was collected, in accordance with the principles set out in our Privacy Policy. Individual members' data is held only for as long as required in order for the Club to conduct its business and in the event of membership not being renewed for any reason, will be removed from the Club's database within 3 months of non renewal.

Privacy Policy

Introduction

Swindon North End Bowls Club ('SNEBC') is an applicable organisation under the Data Protection Act (1998) and the General Data Protection Regulations (2018). This Policy applies to Personal Information collected by SNEBC, and sets out the principles governing our processing of that information, and the way we use, keep secure and disclose it.

By providing Personal Information about yourself to SNEBC, you agree to our processing, storing and using that information in accordance with the principles set out in this Privacy Policy. We will always deal with your personal information fairly and in accordance with your instructions.

By submitting Personal Information to the SNEBC website (www.swindonnorthendbowlsclub.weebly.com), you agree that we may process it in the manner described in this Policy. We remind you that this Policy does not apply to third party links beyond this website. If you select a third party link, you will be directed to that third party's site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy and terms and condition of every site you visit.

Your Personal Information that is necessary for us to operate our membership, includes full name and title, postal address, telephone and/or mobile numbers, and email address. We will process your personal information using your consent as the lawful basis for controlling and processing the data. We will request your authorisation for processing your personal information, as described below, at the time of application or at renewal of membership, whichever comes first.

You can refuse to give consent to any of the individual requests without detriment to your membership of SNEBC.

Use of Personal Information

We limit the collection and use of your personal information. When we ask you for Personal Information, we will tell you the purposes for which we will process that information. Such purposes include the following:-

- maintaining our membership database, to facilitate the administration and management of the Club
- contacting you with information relating to your membership, or application for membership, and details of events and other matters which we think will be of interest to you
- other SNEBC members
- communicating information to affiliated bowls clubs about fixtures
- communicating membership information to Bowls Wiltshire
- communicating information for producing and printing of annual Members' Handbook
- when processing data for a particular purpose is a legal requirement.

We will not reveal any of your information to any external organisation unless we have previously informed you that this will happen through disclosures or agreement, and we have obtained your authority to do so.

Timescale

We will store your personal information in encrypted electronic form, and paper-based form, from the point of collection for as long as you are a member of the Club. After you cease to be a member, your personal information will be retained for a period of 3 months, before being deleted/destroyed. After you cease to be a member, you will have the option of giving your express consent for your Personal Information to remain on our database, for the purposes of receiving information relating to SNEBC news and events only.

Opt-out choice

You have the right to withdraw at any time your agreement to any of the individual consent options, by writing to The Secretary.

If now or at any time in the future you decide that you do not wish to receive information from us, please inform the SNEBC Secretary by email, by letter, or by using the 'Contact Us' form on the website. Withdrawal of consent will be acted on within 3 months.

Security

We strive to protect the privacy and security of our database, and to maintain the reliability and accuracy of Personal Information. We will hold information collected by us on a computer and in other forms. Although we cannot guarantee the security of all transmissions of personal information, especially where the internet is involved, we take all reasonable steps to prevent this from happening. You accept the inherent security implications of providing information and will not hold us responsible for any breach of security or disclosure of information unless we have been proved to be negligent.

Information Access and Corrections

You have a right of access under the General Data Protection regulations to information we hold about you on our records.

The accuracy of personal information depends on the information you provide to us, so we recommend that you:

- a) let us know if there are any errors in your personal information; and
- b) keep us up to date with changes to your personal information.

Photographs

We may take photographs of you attending matches or other events and we may wish to use them for marketing and advertising purposes, or publishing on our website. Unless you advise us otherwise, you expressly agree and consent to the use of any photographs which may include you without compensation. We will not use the images taken, or any other information you provide, for any other purpose.

We will not include details or full names (which means first name and surname) of any person in an image on our website, on video, or in printed publications, without good reason. For example, we may include the full name of a competition prize winner if we have their consent.

Privacy Policy Changes

Although most changes are likely to be minor, SNEBC may change its Privacy Policy from time to time, and at our sole discretion. We encourage members to check this policy frequently for any changes.

In the event of any questions, queries or corrections to personal information contained within this website, please contact SNEBC Secretary.

Cookie Policy

Under EU regulations we are required to advise visitors in respect of the use of 'cookies' on the SNEBC website:

This site uses cookies – small text files that are placed on your machine to help the site provide a better user experience. In general, cookies are used to retain user preferences, store information for things like shopping carts, and provide anonymised tracking data to third party applications like Google Analytics. As a rule, cookies will make your browsing experience better. However, you may prefer to disable cookies on this site and on others. The most effective way to do this is to disable cookies in your browser.
